DCM Report 11-15-2011

Hello to All;

It is getting to the end of the rotation for District 7's committee members and we are all grateful for their service. It finally snowed this morning so I can say winter is soon upon us and the holidays are just about here. This is the time of year when bottoms are hit and if we are lucky sobriety found. Many sobriety birthdays are in December and January, I was slow it took me till May.

We have things to do here in District 7, like the GSR school coming up December 15th at our regular District Committee meeting place. There is also the winter workshop here at the Brainerd Hotel and Conference Center January 21st and 22nd, 2012. District 7 will be hosting it so we need to put on our hospitality jackets and meet and greet and register and serve coffee to the many people who will be spending the weekend from out of town. District 7 will need to form a couple of committees to do this event. One will be for registration, greeting and coffee service and the other will be for the presentation on Social Websites that will be given at 9:30am Saturday morning. The other thing that we need to be sure to do is that all out going chairs spend time with incoming chairs and make themselves available as needed to assist them in their new positions. Lets set them up for success and a good 2-year rotation.

When we are in service to others we are taken out of ourselves for the moment and we stop thinking about ourselves and we are content. When I dwell on myself I tend to become discontented and dissatisfied with life. Service work of any kind takes me away from discontentment. I hope whom ever reads this can find their way into some kind of service to others and reap the benefits.

Peace be with and God Bless.

Mark N.
